Music for all the Saints

An Illustrated talk by Patrick Craig

Including music by Palestrina, Byrd and Monteverdi

Worship of Saints was big business in the 16th century. Bones were displayed and sought after as a means of attracting pilgrims. Composers and artists were also caught up in this devotion and many great works were created to honour the memory of these often extraordinary lives. Patrick will explore the stories of these men and women and pair up spectacular music with art from across Europe to honour their lives and deaths.
